

Abel's Song

Nov 2019

From Heb 11:4, Gen 4:2 & 4, Eph 2:8-9, II Cor 5:21, I Pet 1:18-19 & 3:18

Vs. 1

F C F B^b F C C7

By faith A-bel of-fered to God a more ac-cept-a-ble sac-ri-fice than Cain, through

Refrain

5 which he was com-mend-ed as right-eous, God com-mend-ing him by ac-cept-ing his gifts. And through his

B^b F C C7 F

9 faith, and through his faith, and through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. And through his

B^b F C C7 F

13 faith, and through his faith, and through his faith, though he died, he still speaks. Now

F C F F7 B^b F C C7

17 what was the gift that he of-fered? Was it some-thing his own hands had done? Oh,

F F7 B^b F/C C7 F

(Opt. refrain) Vs. 3

21 no! It was what God re-qui-red, a pic-ture of His right-eous Son. Young

F C F B^b F C C7

25 A-bel was a keep-er of sheep, and A-bel brought of the first-born of his flock, the

F F7 B^b F/C C7

(Opt. refrain) Vs. 4

29 first-born of his flock and their fat, and for him and what he brought God had re-gard. Now

F C F B \flat F C C7

33 Je - sus was God's per - fect Lamb, His first-born Son who was right-eous in His sight. Yes,

F F7 B \flat F/C C7 F

Final refrain

37 Je - sus gave His life, He was will - ing, so that sinn - ners with God are made right. And through His

B \flat F C C7 F F7

41 faith, and through His faith, and through His faith, though we die, we can live. And through His

B \flat F C C7 F

45 faith, and through His faith, and through His faith, though we die, we can live.